Charles was a great friend whom I attended FSU football games together with for over 30 years. Charles was a die-hard FSU fan; I can't imagine how empty it will feel the next Florida State football game I attend without Charles by my side.

Charles passion for FSU football though paled in comparison and was no match for the deep love and gratitude for his family. Charles memory will always be with us, and his legacy will continue through his loving wife Christine, son Chase, family, and friends.

In this sorrowful time, sending thoughts of comfort and hope that Christine and Chase find strength to get through the difficult days ahead. Those we love never truly leave us.

Everyone who knew Charles considered themselves lucky, me included. I will miss my friend dearly, but I am so grateful for having known Charles. In the loving memory of Charles, a person whose kindness and generous spirit touched the lives of everyone who knew him. He will be so missed and never forgotten, God Bless!

The death of a loved one is the return of a precious man that god has online lent to us. God was pleased to bring home our beloved son-in-law and brother-in-law Charles. And we mourn him even though we know Charles in the light and glory of god. He was a wonderful husband and a loving father and we knew our daughter and sister Christine with him cared for, loved and protected. Charles left a lot of traces. Traces of love, pictures, moments and wonderful memories that remind us of him. We are grateful for this and we carry this like a precious gift within us.
Our thoughts and prayers are with his familiy. Especially with our beloved daughter and sister Christine and our grandson and nephew Chase.
