“ I met Argyrios and his family in 1960 in Washington DC. I have wonderful memories of him as he filled the role of big brother to me guiding me and giving me heartfelt advice. For the last several years I have tried to contact him but was unable to reach him. He was a wonderful patrioti and wonderful man. I will miss him tremendously.

“ Argyrios and Sasa were our lovely next door neighbors in Darnestown, MD for over 25 years. He was an incredibly friendly and kind man who loved to be around people and share his stories.

Our favorite memory of Argyrios is one evening when he can over to join us at our patio table with a bottle of ouzo. He entertained us with stories about his house in Greece, how he came to the U.S. and the many family car trips the Nitsios family took all across the U.S., sometimes driving quite far for a weekend away.

He will not be forgotten by anyone who knew him.

Our condolences to the family. May your many wonderful memories comfort you.
