

Nicholas Ian Sander

August 29, 1992 - September 22, 2019

Nicholas Ian Sander entered eternal rest surrounded by friends and family on September 22, 2019 at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital.

Most precious son of William and Maureen Sander, Nicholas was born in Miami, Florida and moved with his parents to Tallahassee as a child. Nicholas attended Leon High School, and spent some time at Tallahassee Community College. Nicholas was a patient, loving caregiver to his father and a great source of support to his mother and sisters.

Nicholas searched for his place in the world but always rose to the occasion when anyone needed him. He apprenticed in air conditioning and loved metal work and working with animals.

He is survived by his mother, Maureen Sander; sisters, Katherine and Isabelle; grandmother, Florence (Dolly) Sander; grandfather, Frank O'Neil (Barbara); uncle, Vincent Sander; aunt, Jennifer Lanni; uncle, James Lanni; and cousins, Jessica and James as well as Gene Weier, John Weier (Maureen), Ron Weier and Douglas Weier (Cindy). He was preceded in death by his father and his older brother, Maximilian.

The family will receive friends from 3:00 to 4:00pm on Friday, September 27, 2019 at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Road in Tallahassee, with the funeral service following at 4:00pm. In lieu of flowers, donations to 2-1-1 Big Bend (www.211bigbend.org) are appreciated.

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Sander family with their arrangements.

Comments

“ Well, there was the annual Forth of July fireworks wars between Nic and Max. Most people shoot the fireworks into the sky. Nic and Max played war tag, firing bottle rockets and Roman candles at each other. If you stayed outside with them you risked having your hair set afire or loosing an eye. Were you any safer in the house while it was bombarded—don't know. Play on boys like it's the Forth of July. cp
