“ My condolences to the family of Virginia Wise Fisher. I happened upon her obituary on this website as I was looking for info on the WASPS. What a women. I am currently reading a book about the these women pilots.....The All-Girl Filling Station's Last Reunion, by Fannie Flagg. I love the photo and plan to reference your mother in our book discussion the end of this month.

I was a baby when your mother started flying. In the early 1960's I began a "flying" career as a stewardess for UAL. I flew into the turn the century, starting with DC-6's and & DC7"s...ending with the Boeing 747 400 to Asia. I loved reading about your mother and would have loved to talk to her about the WASPS.
