

Abbiegail "Gail" Stiles Chittenden

June 2, 1948 - July 10, 2022

Abbiegail "Gail" Stiles Chittenden passed away on July 10, 2022 in the comfort of her home.

She is survived by her husband, Buddy Chittenden of Carrabelle, as well as their two sons Landon Chittenden (Angie) and Ryan Chittenden (Mandi) of Tallahassee. She also leaves behind five grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews. Gail was predeceased by her parents James Allen Stiles, Jr. and Voncile McColskey Stiles; her sister Caroline Johnston as well as her brothers, Jim Stiles and Robert Stiles.

Raised by a family of hoteliers, Gail lived in the penthouse of Tallahassee's finest: The Old Cherokee Hotel on Park Avenue. She was a wise businesswoman, a wonderful cook, and an accomplished sportswoman. She loved St. Teresa Beach and the Carrabelle River, the homebase for her numerous boating excursions with her family and dogs.

Gail will be forever remembered for her natural beauty, easy smile, and loving heart.

No service has been scheduled at this time.

Breanna Green of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com)

“ Buddy, I am shocked and very saddened to learn of Gail's death. I am only repeating what you already know - she was the ultimate hostess, every detail was to perfection; beautiful inside and out. You, Landon and Ryan are in my heart and prayers,

“ *Dear Buddy,
My heart broke yesterday when I got word of Gail's passing. I feel so bad not contacting y'all for lunch. I will always remember the great times we had growing up and growing old together. She was a very special lady. Please let me know if I can help in anyway. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Sandy*
