“ Unfortunately, I missed the initial notice of Adams' passing. I knew him as a member of the Supplemental Share Retirement Board at the City of Tallahassee. Adam's entire life was spent in the service of others - his family, his fellow officers, the citizens of our City. His dedication and integrity can not be matched and, certainly, will be greatly missed.

“ I knew Adam for short time at TMH and he so graciously took my husband and I on a ride a long which we enjoyed so much and learned a lot from him. We bonded in talks about living up north and moving to Tallahassee. He shared stories with me that were so funny and he was a joy to talk to. He loved his son and wife more than anything in the world. His whole face lit up when he talked of them. I’m so glad I was able to meet him and get to know him for a short time at TMH. He was so willing to share his story of what he was dealing with health wise to help others which will forever live on.

nodes through surgical procedures and/or radiation. When Adam's lymph nodes were removed in his chest and armpit, he had no idea the four inches of swelling around his right arm and hand that were to follow. As a police officer and father to his toddler son, Adam is always on the go. He knew he needed treatment and relief fast, and thanks to his Certified Lymphedema Therapist, Sue, he was able to get the swelling down and reclaim his quality of life.

“ Adam, When I took over as the Sgt. of financial crimes I knew next to nothing about the work done there. You did, and you shared you expertise with me and everyone new who came to the squad. You were from the moment I met you a servant, a leader, a man of integrity and honor. Those years in Financial Crimes together, with Keith-Brian-Robo-Phil-Annie-April-Mellissa and others are some of my most cherished in a long career.

I'll never forget the night my teenaged son's handcuffed themselves together being idiots and when I could not find a key, you came from your house late at night to unlock the pair of goofs. Not sure how many times we laughed about that. But it highlights for me who you were; a man who would do anything for a friend.

Until we meet again rest easy brother.

“ Adam, you are greatly missed my friend! I miss you swinging by the office to grab some gum and share your proudest moments of Cole and Lauren, and there were many. Most of all I will miss how you would light up while sharing those moments, smiling from ear to ear. While we miss you here, we will all remember you in our own ways as you touched many lives.

My thoughts and prayers are with your family and friends.

This is not goodbye, but see you later!

“ 22 years of friendship. We have shared so much laughter (and some tears) over the years. I will never forget the day you told me about Lauren and again when you told me that the two of you were pregnant with Cole. You were such proud husband and Daddy! Of everything you accomplished in your life it was them that you were the most proud of.

I miss you so much. It wasn't supposed to be this way. I will always remember our time together from way back in the day when I dispatched you and the many memories we shared over the years. I will miss your devilish grin and the way you could tell a story like nobody else I know. What I would give just to hear that country accent of yours one more time!

Lauren, Cole and family, my heart breaks for you! I am praying for strength and peace that passes all understanding for you during this difficult time.

“ Adam, thank you for the many years of fantastic memories that are helping to ease the pain of your loss.

*"...And the memories bring back, memories bring back you.
There's a time that I remember, when I did not know no pain
When I believed in forever, and everything would stay the same
Now my heart feel like December when somebody say your name
'Cause I can't reach out to call you, but I know I will one day, yeah..."*

I miss you!

“ Thank you Lieutenant for teaching me and showing me your love for working financial crimes. You were an amazing teacher, boss and friend and I'm so grateful for my time with you on the frog squad. To your family, blood and blue, this is a tremendous loss and know you are in my thoughts and prayers. I'll always remember that smile when he announced he was having a baby and an even bigger smile when he shared he was having a boy. His love for his family was so amazing.
