“ I remember when my Mom and I spent a lot of time together back at Cedar Creek Lake. Great times were spent with Shannon and Mema all day while I worked at the nursery that we had on my step Dad Howard's and Mom's property. We had so many wonderful times the four of us. Will remember them always!

“ One of my fondest memories of my Mema is that when I was little she would always have this T-Rex coloring book/magazine for me to do when I was with her while she watched the television and make the best grilled cheese sandwiches and breakfast the following morning. We would also read the book Duck and Jane and she would give me a colored star depending on how well I was able to read that page. Shortly after that we would play the card game war for hours until it was time for her to go to bed or go back to her house. All in all my Mema no matter what it was or where it was she was always there for her family and friends wholeheartedly and she was the support or backbone that our family had.

I love and miss you already Mema

“ My Ol Me-mas! Is what I called her. I'm her first born Granddaughter Shannon. Her and my Papa would always say YOUR MY FAVORITE GRANDDAUGHTER. The thing was, I was their ONLY Granddaughter. LOL. I have so many memories of my sweet, dear grandmother of mine.

I could always count on my ol me-mas to be there. No matter the day or time, that woman would drop it all to be there for me. She would be at every, and I mean EVERY birthday party. All family functions. Didn't matter what it was, Me-ma was there. She got so mad at me on my 40th birthday because we couldn't celebrate it due to covid.

The love she had was was un measurable. She loved so big you can feel it even when she wasn't there.

She always had the BEST since of humor, even when she had her stroke, she was right there making jokes or talking some crazy mess.

This woman was so very special to me. I can't picture a day with out her in my life. I am so very blessed to have had her for a Me-ma for 40 years. And I will cherish everyone of our memories together. .

She tell me to always keep your legs shaved, just in case you have an accident. You don't want those people to see that you have hairy legs. hahahahahaha Oh that lady was a mess.

I could keep going on and on about her. But as I sit here typing this up, tears keeping flowing down my face wishing she was still here to tell me, everything will be ok.....

This picture shows just how much she is cared for and loved. The piece of paper with this, was written to my Me-ma from me when I was 5. She kept in on her fridgadair for 35 years. She kept everything. Even all the letters I would write to her.

I love you so very much Me-ma,

Love,

Your Favorite Granddaughter

“ My dear Momma I will miss you always. I have been remembering all the times together from when I was young till now. You taught me to be honest, hard working, frugal and giving along with many other attributes that you exuded throughout your life. Family and God was the most important thing in life to you and it showed in everything you did and said. I know you will keep an eye on us all from heaven and maybe gives us a little angel nudge once in a while to let us know your there. I love you so much Momma forever and ever! ”

“ My great Aunt Jeanette, a women whom I respect and love dearly! She is one of the most loving and caring women I know not only to me but to each and everyone of my five children. She took interest in them wanting to know what they liked what they were doing and she would send them birthday cards every year with a note that showed she cared! Although she was in another state it was as if she was right here in TN with us all! I will miss her long phone calls ! I want to share a memory of one of the long calls we had not to very long ago! I was working on a landscaping job and it was so hot outside so I took a “little break” as I went to my car I received her call and we talked about what I was doing and what the kids were doing and we talked about one day not being on this earth! She loved life and she loved to talk but the thing I loved the most is she loved to laugh and it is infectious her laugh! I could have a ruff day and if she called me I was smiling the rest of the day thinking about her stories she would tell me! At the end of our conversation she said well you better get back to work lol I said well it’s time for me to go get the kids! We laughed and laughed about how hard I had worked that day! 😁. I love you AUNT JEANETTE 😁😁😁😁

“ I am the oldest nephew the son of Marvin Smithson her brother who she loved very much and her sister my Aunt Jean. Aunt Jeanette would tell me stories about all three of them I would laugh so hard it would make her laugh. She would tell me stories about my mother Lois and Betty Bush, to me it sounded like they had so much fun in there teens. How fortunate I have been to be a part of my aunts life. This was a woman who shared her life time and love not only with her immediate family but a very large extended family of nieces and nephews, all who adored and respected her. I enjoyed our many conversations and always appreciated her words of wisdom. She was truly a lady of class and good taste and will be sorely missed by the family that loved her. I LOVE YOU Aunt Jeanette. I know you are smiling 😊

“ *Heave has another Angel
Aunt Jeanette was very kind and thoughtful to everyone she met.
She knew what to do and what to say to comfort you. She was very quick to understand your needs and always there to lend a helping hand.
To me she meant the world. She was my aunt, mother, and friend.
Aunts are so special they are like your second mom, and she was to me. I will hold many memories and treasures that we shared, and will keep them close in my heart.
I remember her visits to Texas. We had so much fun and just laughed at so many silly things we did or said.
I'll never forget when she came to San Antonio for Deanna's wedding and fell in love with the Mariachi band. We laughed so hard! She wanted to come back just to see them.
Jeanette was a loving mother, grandmother, and a special friend to all, so precious and dear to all her family.
Now she is a Beautiful Angel in Heaven watching over us.
I love you Aunt Jeanette, even now that you are gone. You will always be near, still loved, missed, and very dear to my heart.
Love you,
Sheila*
