

Angela Jean McCulloch

January 4, 1958 - October 19, 2019

Angela “Angie” McCulloch passed away unexpectedly in her hotel room in North Carolina on October 19, 2019 at the age of 61.

Angie was born on January 4th, 1958 in Decatur, AL to James McCulloch and Dorothy Sparks McCulloch. She dedicated her life to nursing, and was well respected both personally and professionally wherever her path led her. Angie loved spending time in the garden she grew outside her home in Monticello, FL; when she wasn’t planting or weeding, she could be found doing yoga, her bible studies, meditating, or praying by the garden’s edge. Don’t let this gentle pastime fool you; she was a die hard Alabama football fan too, and come game day, she was decked out head to toe in her team apparel, screaming “Roll Tide!” at the top of her lungs. She will be missed dearly for her exuberant personality and immense care for others.

Angie is preceded in death by her parents James A. McCulloch and Dorothy Sparks McCulloch, as well as her sister Ann McCulloch Rafferty. She is survived by her children April Terry and Jacob Smith; her granddaughters Lauren Terry and Madison Terry; her brothers James H. McCulloch, Joe McCulloch, and Bruce McCulloch; her sisters, Glenda McCulloch Oakley, Linda McCulloch, Gloria McCulloch Gillam, and Betty McCulloch Eagle; and a host of beloved family members.

Services will be held Saturday, October 26, 2019 at 10AM at the First Baptist Church of Lloyd, located at 291 Main St. Monticello, FL 32344. There will also be a Celebration of Life held in Alabama; the details of this event are to be planned later. Although flowers are also welcomed, those wishing to honor her life may make a donation in her name directly to the National Alliance on Mental Health. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the McCulloch family with their arrangements.

“ April and Jacob, so sorry to hear about your loss - I just found out last week and so shocked. I worked with her in Perry, all those years ago, but always remained friends after she left Perry Health Facility. I had seen her a few months ago in Lake City where we talked and reminisced of all the years! She loved you two very much and will be dearly missed by all who knew her. God Bless!

“ I will miss my friend. My heart is broken. She was an amazing nurse, a better boss/DON, a wonderful friend, Mom and Grandma. I am praying for all of you...for everyone whose life Angie touched....for everyone that's loved her.
I am devastated that I won't be there tomorrow. I have family in from Tennessee for the day tomorrow. Please know that I love you all.
