

Ann Butler Hartsfield

November 11, 1927 - January 3, 2019

Ann Butler Hartsfield, 91, of Tallahassee, passed away peacefully on January 3, 2019, while surrounded by her loving family.

Ann was born on November 11, 1927 in Havana, Florida to Leonard and Margaret Butler. After graduating from Havana High School, she began Florida State College for Women, which is where she met Paul Hartsfield, Sr. They married in 1948, and began their family in 1949.

In addition to being a wonderful wife and mother, Ann worked at the Floridin Company in Tallahassee, Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs, Lively Vo Tech, where she taught typing and shorthand at night and the Florida Legislature. She was active in the Alpha Gam Sorority and charter member of Forest Heights Baptist Church.

Survivors include three children, Dr. Mel Hartsfield, Bert Hartsfield (Lin) and Robin Munroe all of Tallahassee, eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, son, Fred Hartsfield and brothers, Lewis Butler, Charles Butler, Bud Butler and Scoop Butler.

A graveside service will be held at 2:00PM on Sunday, January 6, 2019 at Oakland Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Big Bend Hospice, 1723 Mahan Center Blvd., Tallahassee, FL 32303.

Ann's family would like to express a special thanks to her special beloved caregiver, Tesa Carr as well as Crystal, Amanda, Jessie, BJ, Daryl, Natasha, Tniah and Cheryl of St. Augustine Plantation for the amazing care in which they gave her.

“ To My dear friend Robin Munroe and her family, I send my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your mother Ann. Although I did not have the opportunity to know her personally, I know that her kind and loving spirit is continued through her precious daughter Robin. I hope the memories bring you happiness and peace as the days go by.
