

Annette P. Simmons

February 29, 1928 - April 14, 2017

Annette P. Simmons, 89, passed away Friday, April 14, 2017 at her home surrounded by her loving family. She was a native of GA and had been a resident of Leon County for more than 55 years before moving to Havana more than 5 years ago to live with her daughter Patricia and son-in-law Dave. Annette was a faithful member of Seminole Baptist Church. She taught Sunday school of all ages for more than 62 years, and managed many assignments in the church over her many years of service, including two mission trips to Colombia, South America. She had worked for the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, and retired after more than 25 years as a supervisor with the Division of Tag and Title. Annette loved to work in her garden and being able to help and meet the needs of others through food, transportation and clothing. Annette was a true Christian and displayed her love for Christ to everyone she came in contact with in her everyday walk.

She is survived by her children, Carl Ann Campbell (Bruce), Patricia L. Pendleton (Dave), and Michael T. Simmons (Susan); a very special niece, Dianne Goodman (Rayburn), and brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Dale and Jackie Mitchum; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She was preceded in death in 1999 by her husband, Carl T. Simmons, a son, David Lawton Simmons in 2003, and her two brothers, James O. Porterfield and David A. Porterfield.
