“ Leigh Anne and Reese, my heart is breaking for you right now. This is once that I can surely say I know what you are going through and how bad it hurts. So sorry we couldn't make the service but getting over this crazy virus that ran through our family. Our moms used to have the best times at their crazy parties, so glad they are together now. We love y'all and want you to know we are praying for you especially for what you are continuing to go through with your dad. Stay close and love each other, I don't know what I would do without Connie and my cousin Sharon❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Leigh Anne and Reece, just want to let y'all know that I understand what you have gone through with your Mama's illness and passing. It is so hard to see our Mama ill and know how miserable she is. You want to hold her to you, but you want her to be able to have peace. No matter how prepared you are, the pain is still great. Mama struggled so hard for a year and a half in so much misery after her fall, but I can remember sitting at Mama's bedside after she was gone, and asking Suzie, "When God grants you what you've prayed for, why does it hurt so bad." It is such a range of emotions and my prayer for each of you is that God will grant you the peace of knowing that your Mama is now well and whole again in the presence of our Lord and that He will ease your pain with precious memories.
