Annie was never a biological mother, but she mothered her entire family. You could not me her and not be moved profoundly and you could not need her and she not be there. You will be missed greatly...

Aunt Annie was a classy lady. If you need to laugh she had you in stitches. I just came into the family 2 years ago and she was an advocate of the NElson family. Aunt Annie we will miss you!

“ My husband Jim and I met Mrs. Ryal in April of this year. We saw her every Thursday morning. She always had a smile on her face and a sweet disposition. We sometimes exchanged prayer requests. We know where she is and where we'll see her one day. We pray God's comfort for her family and the peace that passes all understanding.

*Sincerely,
Jim and Patsy Faircloth*

“ *To the family of Annie Lee Ryal,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) With sympathy,*
