

Arlene Nielson Biegalski

July 24, 2017

Arlene Nielson Biegalski passed away on July 24, 2017, in Tallahassee, Florida.

Arlene was born in Bristol, PA, on October 8, 1941. When she was young she moved with her parents and brother to Blue Anchor, NJ. After high school she graduated from Nursing and Anesthesia School at Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia, PA. For the next 43 years she practiced as a Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetist. Since moving to Florida in 1967 she lived in Pompano Beach, Pt. St. Lucie, Largo, and Tallahassee. She and her late husband were huge NASCAR fans and spent many races, especially Daytona on the infield in their RV. During her retirement she really enjoyed traveling to see family and friends, and took several cruises.

Arlene was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Eva Nielson; her brother, Charles Nielson, Jr.; and, her husband, Lee Pierson, Sr. She is survived by her son, Leon (Meagan) Biegalski of Tallahassee, FL, and their children Boomer Biegalski, Drew Biegalski, Rebecca Biegalski, Kaitlyn Biegalski, and Brooke Biegalski; step-daughter, Tricia (Scott) Walker of Ft. Wainwright, AK, and their daughters Carly Walker and Emma Walker; step-son, Lee (Joy) Pierson, Jr. of Tampa, FL, and their sons Ryan Pierson and Reese Pierson; and, nieces Lesa Nielson and Laurie-Nielson Jackson.

No ceremony will be held. The family will honor her wishes at a later time. In lieu of flowers the family suggests a donation to the charity of your choice.
