“ Oh my! Those wonderful big eyes filled with curiosity and anticipation of the next moment! Bailey made my day...every day in fourth day, as he literally bounced into the classroom. Before arriving at his seat, he made sure he had taken in everyone there, anything happening, anything different and then greeted the situation with that contagious smile that let us know he was READY for the day! (In this arrival process, he also located where I was. which I am sure aided his decision on whether to immediately go to his seat or take a moment to do something a little more fun! :) That routine didn't change because Bailey loved life and wanted to be right in the middle of it all. But, as much as he loved people and adventures, he loved his family!! Not a day passed that we didn't hear him mention each of you, Woody, Joni, Taylor, . It was "my dad..." or "my mom..." or "Taylor..." Even at that early age you three were the important part of what he felt and what he was thinking. How he loved and looked up to his mom and his dad. How he wanted to be just like his "big brother!" Your importance to him was verbalized openly and honestly because it was REAL! I am hurting with you. Love, Nancy Buhler

“ Bailey always had a smile and a hug when he was with us at Canopy Oaks Elementary. His laughter was a great part of our mornings and afternoons when he would come up to the office and visit! He and Trace would have chair races if no one else was around with so much laughter! My prayers are with all of you and I will continue to keep you in my prayers. We are always just a phone call away. Love, The Healy Family
