“ Sister Barbara, what can I not say about this beautiful woman of Christ. She was loving, always caring and praying for others, never concerned about herself but always showing the God in her. I will miss your beautiful bright smile, your calls to check on me, running into you around town, and most of all our visits. I know now that you are resting in the arms of our Lord and Savior, until we meet again my sister rest easy.

Your friend & Sister in Christ

“ My cousin B.J has always been like no other she would always tell me how it makes no sense how family always only seem to come together for a funeral. We always talked about how we prayed our family would just come together and have a good time without some thinking they're better than others and how some look down on others we were in the midst of trying to get everyone together just to have a family get together.

“ Sister Barbara Grant was a very strong and compassionate person. She was always concerned for others. She would give you her last. I will always remember how she helped me when I was out of work and recovering from cancer. She taught me how to survive and be strong.

“ Sister Barbara Grant was a blessing to know as my Sister-in-Christ. We worshipped together in The Church of Jesus Christ, and she will be missed by everyone. I had the privilege to know her on a personal basis as well, what a blessing to talk and converse about the things of God. We loved our sister and her husband, but God loved her more. Take your sweet rest my sister. Until we meet again.
