“ Barbara and I worked together at the Florida Commission on Ethics for many years. I visited Barbara at Tapestry in March 2022, along with several other friends who had also worked there with her. She was her same spunky self, regaling us with stories and reminiscing about some of our experiences as coworkers. That was the last time I saw Barbara, but I will always remember her spirited personality and her fierce love for her sons and their families. May she rest in peace. ”
