“ our moms use to work at the Duval hotel, and we would walk to school (you to Leon) and me to blessed sacrament that is if we even felt like attending school on that day. sixty years have gone by since then Ole girl. And somehow and someway we survived the sixties our moms even made it thru that time with us I don't know how, but they did I don't know how I am going to make thru the next sixty years without my best friend. You are going to be so very missed. What helps is the knowledge that you are no longer in pain and you're at peace until I see you again ole girl love deb
