

Betty Sue Davis

August 7, 1946 - July 30, 2019

Betty Sue Davis of Port St. Joe, Florida passed away at the age of 72 on July 30, 2019. She was born in Blakely, Georgia to parents George Auburn Davis and Mary Etteen Temples Davis. Betty moved from Blakely to Port St. Joe in her early 20s. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, traveling, and most of all: being a grandmother. Her loved ones describe her as a social butterfly, independent, good-hearted, and someone who would do absolutely anything for the those dear to her.

Betty is predeceased by family members Linda Davis Sims, James "Buck" Davis, Billy Davis, and Tony Davis.

She is survived by her life partner of over 20 years, Leo Pogorzelski; her son Christopher M. Varnum and his partner Mandy Espittia; granddaughters Emma and Karleigh Varnum; siblings Peggy Willoughby, Loretta Alexander, Barbara Jean Barron (John), Jimmy Davis (Alice); nieces Debra Sue Williams and Lisa Cox.

A memorial service will take place in her hometown at Pickle Family Cemetery (Pickle Ln, Blakely, GA 39823) on Saturday, August 17, 2019 at 10:30 a.m. followed by a luncheon at Centerville United Methodist Church (5998 3 Notch Rd, Blakely, GA 39823). Breanna Green of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (850-385-2193 www.bevisfh.com)

“ To the best mother anyone could ever ask for: I love and miss you so much Mom! I know that you are in a better place and feeling so much better than you did while you were here on earth suffering from COPD. Everyone here, especially Emma and Karleigh, loves and misses you dearly. You and I will always have a special bond that not even death can break! Loved you then, Love you now and will always Love you mom!

Christopher Varnum - August 06, 2019 at 09:18 PM

Love and prayers for Betty and her family.
