

Betty Ann Kirk

March 15, 1940 - December 30, 2011

Betty Ann Kirk, 71, passed away on Friday, December 30, 2011, at Big Bend Hospice. Betty Ann was born on March 15, 1940, in Kokomo, Indiana. She helped her mother, Saphrona, run a bakery, which helped Betty Ann attend Indiana University, where she earned a Masters Degree in Business Administration. In 1966 she moved to Tallahassee, Florida. She was the Medical Records Administrator at Tallahassee Memorial Hospital, but later found her true calling as a full-time instructor at Tallahassee Community College, where she taught for over 30 years. She was infamous for her Scrabble games that students played in Medical Terminology class.

Betty Ann loved to cook, garden, and travel, and her family and many friends were the light of her life, especially her three grandchildren. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Schelley and Paul Cassidy, son and daughter-in-law Alex and Rae Kerr, and will be greatly missed by grandson, Ian Cassidy, and granddaughters, Emma and Sarah Kerr. Her aunt and uncle, Frances and Lloyd White, reside in Lafayette, Indiana. She is preceded in death by her parents, Saphrona and Henry Phillips.

A memorial service will be held 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, January 4, 2012, at Bevis Funeral Home. A celebration of Betty Ann's life will be held at her house Saturday night, January 7, 2012.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Big Bend Hospice.
