“ I sit here at mamas waiting for a phone call to say when you coming to see me. I'm so glad we spent time together last week. From laughing to crying to singing your favorite song in the car going to the dollar general. Listening to you joke with the women at Lindy's having them about roll out there seats laughing. There is no doubt in my mind that you knew every song and artist and every movie and actor/actress. I would always think how in the world do you remember all this lol. I'm going to miss you woman! I know your not in pain anymore and in a better place. That brings me comfort. I love you and will forever remember the fun you had with all of us kids growing up. My trips here to Tallahassee will never be the same. I love you and miss you more than words can say.

“ Beverly this is so hard not having you here with us. It just doesn't seem right. When I pass your house it seems I should go right there and go inside to see you, give you something etc. Every time I went you wanted to know if Luke was with me so you could give him a snack or if not, you would send him one. We are going to miss you so much but I know you are without pain now and I'm sure talking with Mother, Daddy and Ernestine. Two many people have shared happenings the last few days and it all confirmed that we know you are in Heaven and you are resting now. We had the best time going to Colorado to see Bubba a few years back and wanted to do it again. I'm sure Heaven is a lot more beautiful than this earth so walk on those streets of Gold. Love You, Your Sister, Donna

“ Not enough space to share my memories of my Aunt Bevy. The many days spent at her house to all of the "goose eggs" I got from playing in her front yard with Faith and Bubba. Or, her kitchen floor being mopped by my hair bc Bubba was slinging me around the kitchen floor by my feet. All I know is that I love Aunt Bevy more than words could ever say. She will be missed!! I am heartbroken!!!

“ Keith & Mike,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Beverly was such a lively wonderful woman. One of my fondest memories was at your party at your first ranch. She made boiled peanuts & we sat in the grass, ate them, and laughed and talked for hours.
My thoughts and prayers are with you.

It is always hard to say goodbye but we are going to just say, see ya later. I remember the time that we had Young People's at New Light and can't remember exactly why but it does not matter why but I took Faith home and you invited me in and we talked and had a good ole time. Steve and I were only dating then. He always worried about me. Well our visit was very lengthy and he had called near about all Wakulla (ha ha) trying to check to see where I was and if I was okay. Finally he found out I had taken Faith home and got your number. You said wow, you are not even married yet and he is keeping up with you. But it was a good thing. We sure had plenty of laughs but not making fun of him. .. on that account. I will miss you but one day we all shall soon be together again. Debbie Harnage
