“ My Aunt Bev was the most precious person in the whole world. You never seen her in a bad mood. She was always happy and sweet as she could be. I don't remember my life without her in it so this is gonna be so hard. One thing is for sure she is walking them streets of gold tonight along with Uncle Richard ,Her parents, my Grandma & Granddaddy, and My Mama. I know they were all so glad to see her. I can just imagine those angels singing. I know that she is happy,safe,and she isn't suffering anymore, but I just don't understand why God had to take her like this, and why she couldn't just stay with us longer. Apart of my heart is completely broken, and will never mend. One of the best memories that I love is the way she signed my cards growing up saying May God bless, and watch over you always. Now she's with him so she can watch over all of us too. I love you Aunt Bev, and wish I would have told you more often . So until we meet again you go rest high on that mountain❤️❤️❤️

“ Beverly was the best sister a person could have. We loved to do crafts together. We always kidded about opening up our own craft shop. I'm going to miss her so much. I love you Bev.
