“ Bill was my Cousin, and a wonderful one he was. So many great Childhood memories at our Grandparents home in Sturgis Michigan. One of my Favorite was when Grandpa put a tent up for us to sleep overnight. We made it till Sundown, and I think we were both pretty happy when our Grandmother came out to see if we wanted Ice Cream, so we had an excuse to opt out of sleeping in the tent. He was a sweet, always smiling, playing catch with his tomboy Cousin. How can you be so close growing up, and life quickly puts time and distance between you. I love you Bill, thank you for being you, and the memories. God Bless you.
