“ Such sad news I just learned. I have extremely fond and special memories of Bobbie from almost 4 decades ago, and I never knew she was in Mt. Dora very close to where I live. Over the years I have thought of Bobbie and her family often. She was such a sweet person, dedicated mother, and a dear friend to many. Our thoughts and deep sympathy extends to everyone in her family during this time of loss.

“ My sincere condolences to Bobbie's friends and family. We worked together briefly in 1980 in Aging and Adult Services before I moved to Financial Management. I didn't know her well or for very long but she was always a class act and a bright spot in my day. I wish I had told her that. She was a lovey person.

“ Bobbie was a dedicated mother to all her sons, especially Donnie who she gave her all. I always loved her laugh and kindness to me. She loved her sisters and always enjoyed getting together with them through the years. I know for her beliefs and dedication to her son's she is at peace in heaven. I can imagine her happiness seeing her Donnie and the great surprise to see her loving sister Betty. To her other two son's and her sister Gail may GOD bless you at this time.
