“ Sincere condolences on the loss of your beloved husband, father, and grandfather, Brant.

One of my favorite memories of him is one of a Thanksgiving in the early 70s. He came to Colchester to visit my family (my dad, Alstead Cady, was his Uncle). He had a German Shepherd with him -- even tho it was cold, he and his dog slept in his van in our driveway! I can see him in my mind's eye walking that dog in our yard.

I did not see Brant for over 30 years -- the last time in Sarasota, as we lost contact. However, he found me when looking for my late brothers, Wayne and Glenn. It was a comfort to me to be in email and Facebook contact with him -- I knew I actually had another elder male in my family alive. So sad to hear of his passing.

Please know that the Miller family is in my thoughts and prayers.

*Love,
"Cousin" Dawn*
