I am so sorry I had not heard the news of Brian being called up to the "Majors" until late yesterday. I was blessed to be able to view and hear the tribute to a son, father, and brother, and friend. His Passion should be our passion.

I have been blessed to have served three generations of the Tease family, while witnessing their journey partnering with our Savior and Lord. I smile as I think of the Joy that Desmond and Brian are sharing in His presence. Until I see you again brother, I will smile as I think of you.

Jupilene, God grant you the grace to enjoy what you still have, a family who loves our Lord and brings Glory to Him. Melissa, Tetelestai, as you replay the story remember all the special affirming moments. God is good, all the time.

“ I am lucky and blessed to have shared so many memories with you, most you probably don't want repeated, it's just that your friendship meant so much to me and everyone else that knew you. My heart and prayers go out to your family, I know this is such a difficult time to endure. I remember how you were there for me when I had to deal with the deaths of family and friends and I pray your family can tap into the courage comfort you provided for so many others. Peace and love my brother

“ To the entire Tease family: I am heartbroken for you all. I can not remember never not knowing Brian. He was like a brother to me and I loved him very much. Just recently we talked about our wonderful childhood and the lifelong friends we made at church. He reminded me of playing “Josh Randall” on Sundays when he would come home with us after church. My deepest condolences to his family. Knowing that he is in glory now and we will see him again one day comforts us, but our human nature grieves immensely. May God comfort and bless you in this difficult time. Pam, I love you so much.
