

Bruce James Middleton

August 14, 1954 - July 16, 2023

Bruce James Middleton, 68, of Tallahassee Florida passed away July 16, 2023 after a hard fought battle with cancer. He took his last breath at the home of his daughter surrounded by his family.

Born August 14, 1954 in Newton Massachusetts, he was the son of the late George J. Middleton and Natalie A. Williams (Gilman).

Bruce was a self-made man, a world traveler and an entrepreneur in every sense of the word. His passions included scuba diving, deep sea fishing, and capturing candid moments from behind a camera. He wore many titles: father, brother, grandpa, uncle, mentor, provider, and friend. His greatest accomplishment in life was being a dad and grandfather. There was nothing more important to him than family. In his final days, his only request was that his loved ones always remain close. There were no limits to his love. His compassion and generosity extended to all, especially those most in need. The number of lives he impacted is innumerable. That is his legacy.

He is survived by his daughters, Brittany M. Geiger and her husband Stuart of Hosford, Fl and Destany M. Middleton of Valdosta, Ga, and his son Hunter B. Middleton of Dothan, Al; 8 grandchildren, Mason, Madden, and Hadleigh Geiger of Hosford, Fl, Austin Middleton and Gracie Williamson of Valdosta, Ga, Bricen and Emma Mae Worsley of Valdosta, Ga, and Tinleigh Middleton of Newton, AL. He is also survived by his brothers Gary R. Middleton and his wife Kathy of Tallahassee, FL and Joseph T. Middleton of Los Angeles, CA, his sister Roberta L. Lewis of Valdosta, Ga, and the one true love of his life, Shelia M. Lewis of Lake Park, Ga. He is preceded in death by two sisters, Georgia L. Purvis and Helen E. Williams, both of Valdosta, Ga.

Services will be held Friday, July 21, 2023 at 11:00 AM in the chapel of Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Road, Tallahassee, FL, 32303. The family will receive guests for visitation from 10:00 AM until service time at the funeral home. Bruce will be buried in Hosford Cemetery in Hosford, at 1:00 PM EST.
