“ Although I never met Camryn, I took a moment to read a few of the cards and posters created for her at a local memorial site. She seemed super sweet and a genuinely good friend and person to those who knew her. I simply offer my condolences, and my prayers to Doane, and the entire Rohr family during their bereavement. Camryn was a beautiful person who will truly be missed.

“ Doane

Our condolences to you and your family on the tragic loss of Camryn. Over these last few days, I have learned that my daughter and a number of her friends were acquaintances with Camryn and they all mentioned how fun she was and how she had a gift that caused people to gravitate towards her. We continue to keep you all in our prayers.
