“ I am sad to read about Carl's passing. He was a dear friend of mine in the 70s in Tallahassee, and one of the smartest, wittiest person I have ever known. I send sympathy to the family for this loss of a wonderful person.

Carl was a kind, generous and beautiful human being who shared much with our family and those around him. He had a gentle sense of humor and incredible insights into the human condition. He will be greatly missed.
