“ Aunt Carol was the best Aunt I could have ever dreamed of having. I spent many summer holidays, spring breaks, thanksgiving and Christmas with her in Clearwater Fl. Aunt Carol always made me feel special in ever since of the word. We did so much together and she taught me so much with her travels around the world. I will never forget I hadn't seen from her in years because goes on for us all. I had my first child and he passed at just short of 3 months. At the funeral I looked up and there was my precious Aunt Carol showing her unconditional love and support for me and just being there made my loss alittle easier to bear. We will see each other again on the other side. Until then family please know how special she was to me and I loved her dearly.
