

Caroline Gray Lindsey

July 24, 1998 - April 11, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Caroline Gray Lindsey of Birmingham, Alabama announces her passing. Caroline, died tragically on April 11th, 2018 as a result of an automobile accident. She was nineteen years old and beloved by all.

Caroline was born July 24th, 1998 to Dr. John Brett and Amy Rogers Lindsey, both of Tallahassee, Florida. Caroline grew up in Birmingham, Alabama and was educated in the Mountain Brook School System. She was a tennis prodigy and then later a star volleyball player. She loved the traditions of all the holidays, loved children and animals, and was devoted to her family and many friends. Her energy was boundless and her humor infectious.

She had her unique style which she shared often on social media and was a true “foodie” with her own food blog. Her most recent joy came from her relationship with her kind boyfriend, Joseph Savignano, who gave her Zoe—a puppy with energy to match Caroline’s. Joseph was also tragically killed in the accident. Caroline was living in Atlanta, Georgia, a city she loved, with plans to become an aesthetician or Kindergarten teacher.

Caroline is survived by her devoted mother Amy, her sisters Madeline and Emma, her brother Fred, her grandparents Miriam Rogers (Midgie) and Fred and Jimmie Lindsey (Papa Fred and Gigi), and many aunts, uncles, and cousins, all of whom are heartbroken.

The funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, April 16th at Bevis Funeral Home, 200 John Knox Road, in Tallahassee, Florida. Caroline will be buried in Roselawn Cemetery next to her Dad, her hero.

Rocky Bevis of Bevis Funeral Home in Tallahassee (850/385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Lindsey family with their arrangements.
