“ Growing up my family lived next door to her in Ocala. We grew very close to grandpa and grandma Charles over those years. They were always know to us as grandpa and grandma. So much so that my parents had to actually tell me when I got older that although we are not related, God brought us together. We have so so many amazing memories with both of them. From the time we were very little all the way to visiting in SC to FI over the last years. I am so so glad God brought us together. I love you grandma Charles ❤️
