“ As silly as it seems, one of the best times we had together was picking peas out in the hot sun, in our bare feet, and laughing about it! She was such an example to me of what a lady should be, even picking peas, barefoot, in the hot Florida sun! Thank you for showing me that it is possible to do hot, hard work, and still retain such dignity.

“ I can say that I was Aunt Carolyn’s “little girl” for a short time after my birth. My Mom was sick with gallbladder issues during her pregnancy with me. When I was born my Mom was taken into surgery. When I was released from the hospital Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Willard cared me for the first many weeks of my life while my Mom was recovering. I loved hearing this story knowing I was her little girl for a bit.

What I always remembered about my Aunt is her humor. She was really funny and could tell the best stories! I also loved her voice and her accent.
