“ Mike and I are so sorry to hear that Carolyn has left us. The Lord has gained a loving servant and absolute Jesus fan. We met Carolyn and Troy at Piedmont Park Alliance about 20 years ago. She always greeted us in love with that beautiful smile. Knowing that among those welcoming her home, was Pastor John Crosten. ‘God is good...all the time!’ Until we meet again,

“ Let me say I will miss our talks, text and the love that Carolyn, shared so much. We would talk about the many funny stories from Jim Hill and Wingfield, songs from many artists as we remembered our past. Friends that we dearly loved. I could call Carolyn about any of these types of memories and they would turn into laughter and some of the fondest memories, only Carolyn could have made. I loved her so much and will miss her deeply.
