“ Jo Youngman Herzfeldt - For many years you were like my second mom. Bonnie and I running around trying to find (I meant stay out of) trouble, and you and my mom making sure we stayed on track. Thank you for the many, many weekends that I showed up and was always welcomed. I have many, many wonderful memories.

“ I have know Carrie (Sister) since 1958. I was married to her brother James (J.C., Buddy). She was an awesome cook. Fresh fried bream, grits, collards, creamed corn from the freezer that Howard had grown. Oh, the memories of the times we spent with her. She was never rushed, she was always the last one to finish eating. She swept her kitchen floor every day where the kids tracked in the sand. "You kids either stay out or stay in". As Sister begin to age, she became the image of her mother Wilma. Buddy had this need to see his family & every weekend we would drive 3 hours to go to Sister & Howard's. To this day I don't understand how she put up with my family every weekend but she never said a word. She was such a sweetheart.

“ The greatest person I ever knew, my mother, was a wonderful woman and will be greatly missed in our family. Always caught the first fish and skunked my butt more times than I got her. I would love to have one more fishing trip...
