

Catherine Mathis O'Quinn

October 10, 1927 - December 2, 2019

Catherine Mathis O'Quinn, 92, died Monday, December 2, 2019, of natural causes at the Bertrand Health Center at Westminster Oaks Retirement Community in Tallahassee, Florida where she lived for the last ten years of her life. A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date.

Catherine was a lifetime resident of Panama City, Florida and attended the Unitarian Universalist Church there. She practiced dental hygiene in Panama City for many years, working for several dentists during her long career. She was active in the Democratic Womens Club of Bay County. She was greatly loved by a wide circle of friends, colleagues and family. She was born Catherine Mathis in Chattahoochee, Florida and graduated in Dental Hygiene from West Liberty State College in West Liberty, West Virginia in 1955.

Survivors include two children, Kristopher Jonathan Mathis (and wife Jane) of Panama City and Kelly O'Quinn DeMink (and husband Jerry) of Atlanta, Georgia; and four grandchildren, Spencer DeMink, a Junior at Georgia Southern University, Marshall DeMink, a Freshman at Kennesaw State University, Dr. Ian Mathis (and partner Trinh Luu), of Los Angeles, California, and Dean Gargiulo of Tallahassee, Florida.

Breanna Green of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with their arrangements. (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com)