Bevis Funeral Home - December 09, 2020 at 11:08 AM

Dillon was my neighbor 2 doors down at the house he recently bought. I would regularly see him cleaning up neighbors yards without them even knowing. Dillon and I had a lot in common, and ever since news struck, I have been devastated. His viewing and service was beautiful, and it felt good to see my friend one more time. To the family of Dillon, the last we spoke I was asking if he still had a connection for a business that did blinds. He then went on to tell me about how great a man his father is, and that he would happily help anytime as well as providing his dads number. He loved you, admired you and thought the world of you Mr. Chick. Respectfully, Dillons neighbor and friend Trey.

“ Dillon was a very sweet, humble, and loving young man. He became a very important part of our Kirkman office- Leon County tax collector family. We all loved him very much. I am thankful to have known Dillon, and he will definitely be missed. I'm thankful for being able to see him on last Thursday, but not knowing that would be the last time seeing that beautiful smile. We spoke about some personal issues that he had gone through and how he turned his life around. I encouraged him to keep up the good work and told him that I was proud of his accomplishments.

Dillon's passing has taught me to find the blessing in the midst of the storm, and to show the one's close to you how you feel because you don't know what tomorrow will bring. My heart goes out to the Chick family and friends. I'm praying for you. God bless you all.

“ My sincere condolences to Dillon's family. Dillon's parents raised one of the most outstanding young men I have had the privilege of knowing.

I remember meeting Dillon several years back. He saw me and my son throwing a baseball in the front yard and walked up to us and introduced himself as our new neighbor. His magnetic personality made it easy to connect and we have spent countless hours together since that day playing sports, swimming, grilling, etc.

I have 3 children but my son thought Dillon hung the moon. Dillon shared every tip and trick of sports that he had ever learned with my son. I would often get home from work to find Dillon in my front yard throwing a baseball or football with my son. He absolutely loved Dillon.

Dillon was a terrific role model and influence for my children during all of the many hours we spent together. He was such an honest and genuine person. The kind of person who was one of your best buddies after being neighbors for only a few years.

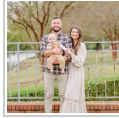

Dillon was a fighter and fought like hell to make positive change in his life over the past year. Dillon was the happiest that I had seen him on Sunday before Thanksgiving when he helped me move a washer and dryer.

The world needs more Dillon's. So willing to give all of himself. So selfless.

The Daniels family will miss Dillon greatly. While it is sad for those of us left behind, I know Dillon's wonderful soul is in paradise now and I can't wait to see him once again.

We were very fortunate to spend many years together at many baseball fields in many cities and states. Dillon was a great young man, so likable, exceptionally talented yet an unassuming, humble and selfless leader.

Our prayers at this time go out to you and your family. Dillon clearly left his mark in his own unique way on many of us.

“ Dillon was a Great guy; we stayed at the same place this Summer and became good friends. He was the first person to come up and introduce himself when I arrived there. We stayed in touch on the phone, calling or texting at least once a week. Even if he only had a few minutes on the way home from work, he's check in to see how I was doing. I'm Grateful I got to know him and will miss him every day. Godspeed Brother, I will see you again one day.

Dillon left a positive impression on all who met him at our agency. Even though his time with us was way too short, he left us in a better place as a team after making his acquaintance. The people who appear glad to see you every time you see them.

There's one less in my life.

“ Dillon was truly an amazing man. I was blessed to get a chance to know him this past year, although I am so deeply saddened that I couldn't have known him longer. The portion of his obituary that says he would "give a person the shirt off of his back" couldn't be more true, as he did just this for me when I didn't have a shirt that I could work out in. When I tried to return it, he insisted that I keep it for myself, despite it being a very nice shirt.

I will miss you Dillon. You were an amazing man, and a dedicated friend. I look forward to the day we meet again, and will miss you every day until then. Fly high brother!

“ Charles, Gwen, and Cammie,

I spent Sunday afternoon in my yard, seeing Dillon everywhere. His sweat and tears and heartache are in every corner, on every leaf and twig, and pounded into every remaining tree stump in my yard. He was such a good friend to me. Such an open spirit, so easy to talk to. I will not be able to walk out my back door without seeing his hand on every project; without thinking of him drenched in sweat and covered in leaves and dirt, and grinning. We had so many heart to heart talks pulling up shrubs and cutting up trees and limbs.

I will miss him so much. Know that you are not alone in your grief and sense of loss. I am, as I am sure you are, devastated in a world without him.

“ Dillon was one of the most kind hearted people I have ever meet. He would indeed give the shirt off his back for anyone and I had the pleasure of witnessing his kind generosity daily. The times he has helped a random stranger by giving him his shoes when the man was homeless and shoeless to the times he helped me move and helped us all when ever we called on him. He was always willing to lend a helpful hand, a listening ear or a hug where he saw it needed. Working with him was a great pleasure and his humor helped us all get through the long days. Dillons laugh, smile and generous spirit will be so so missed.
