Retired U.S Air Force MSGT Charles "Chuck" Stephen Paliwoda died on March 9, 2022. He was born May 18, 1950, in Housatonic Massachusetts. He was the son of Stephen Aloys Palivoda and Sophie Bobola Palivoda. Chuck graduated high school from Monument Mountain Regional High School, Great Barrington, MA and joined the U.S Air Force where he served and retired at MSGT E-7. After retiring, Charles began working for the State of Florida and ran his own business as everyone's best handyman. He loved to read, ride his dear horses Dude and Ceci, teach the dogs tricks (they can bow) and spend his spare time fishing. If man built it he could figure out how to repair it. Most importantly he cherished his family and grandchildren over everything else. He is loved and will be missed.
