“ My heart is heavy for the loss of my dearest friend and former coworker's father passing, Chuck. I was blessed to celebrate many occasions in his family celebrations. Bonnie your Dad was always a delight to be with and such a wonderful man. He never hid his love and pride to his wife, Shirley and family. I loved his big, sweet smile and the warmth that poured out of a fine, loving gentleman. I am happy you shared so many of your family milestone moments that made me feel as if I had an adopted family. Sending my love, hugs, prayers, peace and thoughts to you and your family.

“ I am so sorry. It was just a few moths ago that I sat across a table and had the most stimulating and fun conversation with Chuck. We had so much in common. Words can not assuage your loss, but know he touched many in such a positive way, and I was blessed to be one of them. Godspeed.
