

Charles Rush Gander

December 16, 1943 - April 7, 2017

Charles Rush Gander, 73, passed away quietly at home on Friday, April 7, 2017. Rush was a life-long resident of Carrabelle, a town he loved with people he loved. He spent his adult life as owner and proprietor of Gander's Hardware, a family business begun by his father and now carried on by his grandson, Cody Barber. Rush also was a member of Fellowship Baptist Church of Carrabelle.

Rush is survived by JoAnn Bailey Gander, his wife of 50 years; two daughters, Donna Barber (Brent) of Carrabelle and Deborah Gander of Miami; three grandsons, Cody Barber (Darla), Caden Barber (Tiffany), and Cale Barber all of Carrabelle; two granddaughters, Sophie Gander of Miami, and Stephanie Gragg (Chris) of Carrabelle; and nine great-grandchildren, all of Carrabelle. He is also survived by one brother, Vic Gander (Erna) of Carrabelle, one sister, Mary Ann Harrelson (Jerry) of Inverness, and one sister-in-law, Babs Bailey, of Carrabelle.

Services were held on Sunday, April 9, 2017 at Fellowship Baptist Church in Carrabelle with burial at Evergreen Cemetery.

Todd Wahlquist of Bevis Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements. (850-926-3333 or www.bevisfh.com).
