“ We only meet Charlie a few years ago but it felt like we knew him a lifetime we enjoyed may cold hunting nights around a campfire talking and reminiscing about crazy stuff we had done in the past and things we looked forward to in the future! He use to call me his little brother but he was truly a big brother to me , he was a great woodsman and friend and will be dearly missed! We will share fond memories every time we got hunt

“ I have a lot of wonderful memories with Charlie. I guess the best is hanging out watching him and his brothers working on all those old Fords! Rest in peace my dear friend!
