

Charles Edward "Eddie" Nobles

October 11, 1954 - June 27, 2020

On Saturday, June 27th, 2020, Charles Edward (Eddie) Nobles passed away at age 65.

Eddie was born on October 11, 1954, in Hattiesburg, MS to Edward and Gussie (Burt) Nobles. Eddie moved to Liberty County, Florida in 1970 to begin stumping with his father. On June 8, 1973, he married Kathy Dekle of Bristol. They raised two children, Celeste (Jim) and Chas (Missy). His six grandchildren are Jase Davidson, Kelsey Nobles, Jimmy, Jackson and Hunter Shuler, Bryson Millett and Trace Nobles.

Eddie was an avid hunter and fisherman and was known to make trips to Biloxi. He always enjoyed watching his children and grandchildren play sports. Eddie had a regular spot at the "Table of Knowledge" (aka Liars Table) at the Apalachee. He enjoyed cooking and eating with his friends, especially the regular Thursday night group.

Eddie was preceded in death by his father, mother, and brother Bobby. He is survived by his wife Kathy, his two children, grandchildren, sisters Dena Faye Robertson, Trish Holcomb, Judy Dickens (Jerry), brother Glen Nobles, and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. A private family service was held at the family farm. Todd Wahlquist with Bevis Funeral Home (850-643-3636, www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Nobles family with their arrangements.

“ You probably don't know it but Eddie saved my life about 30 years ago. Well, not really, but it felt like it at the time. I was a young, busy working mom at the time and somehow forgot to get gas. My car came to a sputtering stop at the top of the old Blountstown bridge. After sitting there in disbelief, I was happy to see a truck in my rear view mirror, and even happier to see a familiar face, Eddie! He pushed my car to the bottom of the hill and rescued a very embarrassed, younger version of me. Needless to say I was and am thankful for his kindness? I'm sure I am one of the many that can share a similar story of his calm, comforting, kindness. Please know that my prayers are with you.

“ Sending our love to you all at this time! Mike has said that Eddie was like a mentor to him, teaching him in many different aspects of life. I told Mike, that Eddie even tried to tell him how to fry fish. LOL Mike sure is going to miss him! Love Mike & Mary Jo
