

Charles William Proctor

June 5, 1955 - August 1, 2019

Charles William Proctor passed away on August 1, 2019. He was born on June 5, 1955 in Tallahassee, Florida to Edward Leo Proctor Jr. and Mary Ellen (Annis) Proctor. Charles was a lifelong resident of Tallahassee. He was a graduate of Leon High School and Florida State University and worked for the Department of Education until his retirement in 2013. After retirement, he spent many enjoyable hours developing his gardens and researching family history. He was baptized and confirmed at St. John's Episcopal Church.

Charles is survived by his brothers, Edward Leo Proctor III (Lisa) of Lead Hill, Arkansas and David Annis Proctor (Helen) of Tallahassee, Florida as well as one nephew, Duncan Proctor, and three nieces Celia Proctor (Jake), Melissa Proctor, and Caroline Proctor (Matt).

He is preceded in death by his parents. Charles was a loving and devoted son, a wonderful brother, and a caring uncle. He will be missed.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions can be made to Maclay Gardens at <https://friendsofmaclaygardens.org/>

A graveside service will be held on Monday, August 12, 2019 at Oakland Cemetery at 10:00am.

Scotti Thompson is assisting the Proctor family with their arrangements.

“ As Charles' neighbors on Ravine Drive, we are heartbroken. We spent many a day talking about plants, nature, family history, and politics. Can't believe we won't be able to talk anymore. We will be making a donation to the Friends of Maclay Gardens. We know how much Maclay meant to him.
