Charles Bailey (Bill) Scrivener, Jr. of Crawfordville, FL passed away on March 16, 2015, and went to his heavenly home.

Bill was born on July 1, 1928 in Memphis, TN to Charles Bailey Scrivener, Sr., and Alice Roberta Parke Scrivener. He attended Miami Senior High, graduated from Jackson High School (TN) in 1946 and from Tennessee Tech in 1950. While serving in the Army, Bill married Myrtle Elizabeth Sinclair in 1952.

Myrtle and Bill lived in Augusta, GA and Sarasota, FL for several years before settling in Melbourne, FL where they lived for 35 years while Bill was employed with RCA. Bill was predeceased by his wife Myrtle of 62 years this past September. He is survived by his children, Becky (Mike) Bardin of Crawfordville, FL, Beth Scrivener of Gainesville, FL, and Charles (Norma Jean) Scrivener III of Clinton, MS; his seven grandchildren, Steve (Becky Marie), Heather (Michael),

“ I have such rich memories of your Dad, and can just hear the accents of his voice in my heart. While such a huge loss, I am glad he can join the "happy throng" and be with his wife and his Lord. He leaves a unique and wonderful footprint, and shall be missed.

So glad Mike and I could join the gang at the reunion a few years ago!

“ What wonderful memories I have from my teenage years in both junior and senior high school of coming to your home with Becky. You also gave me rides home from events we attended. I always envied Becky's home life because of you and Mrs. Scrivener. You both were excellent role models! Thank you for being in my life.
