

Charles Durrant Whiddon Jr.

March 1, 1966 - September 20, 2024

Charles Durrant Whiddon Jr., age 58, of Tallahassee, Florida, was welcomed into heaven on September 20, 2024. Born on March 1, 1966, in Greenville, South Carolina, Durrant lived a life full of adventure, love, and faith.

From a young age, Durrant brought joy to his family, earning the affectionate nickname "Joy Boy" from his mother. He was active in scouts and loved being adventurous, often building toys and forts from wood and old machine parts. In his teenage years, his Uncle James introduced him to the world of building and construction, which would become a lifelong passion. His passion led him to build his first home, where he began his family with his former spouse Michelle, and two boys, Dylon and Tyler.

Durrant is survived by his loving wife, Karen Lynne Whiddon, his two sons, Dylon Louis Whiddon and Tyler Yates Whiddon, his sister, Ivey Jean Whiddon, his former spouse Michelle Yates Velez, and many cousins, aunts, and uncles. He was predeceased by his parents, Imogine Rudd Whiddon and Charles Durrant Whiddon Sr.

A devout Christian, Durrant was always willing to help those in need. He loved the outdoors, particularly camping, fishing, and hunting, and enjoyed spending time with his wife, Karen, and creating great memories with his sons, Dylon and Tyler; three stepchildren, Meagan Lindsay Paramore, Matthew Thomas Paramore, Manda Elise Paramore; granddaughter Georgia Rose Paramore. Durrant also found comfort and guidance in reading his Bible. Known for his storytelling and his ability to bring a smile to everyone he met, Durrant will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Durrant was more than a neighbor, he was an example of what God said to live your neighbor as yourself. After a hurricane, our electricity was off, but Durrant's was on. He ran an extension cord from his home to our home so we could have service. He was more than a neighbor, he was good family member. We loved him and we truly miss him. The John Dickey Family.

Thank you so much, Diana. He was such a bright light when he entered a room of people he loved, family and friends; his heart had just gotten even bigger over the last year's as his personal walk with God became deeper. The place he has in our hearts will never be replaced by anyone, as was a wonderful, one of a kind.
