

Chris Wayne Alward

December 17, 1943 - July 3, 2016

Chris W. Alward, 72 of Crawfordville, passed away at home on Sunday, July 3rd, 2016.

Chris was born in Wayne County, Michigan in 1943. He graduated from Tavares High School in 1962 and resided in Florida most of his life. Chris was an avid wildlife lover, his favorite of them all were his raccoons. His love for animals brought him much joy throughout the years. He spent many years as a devoted fisherman and also loved to hunt, especially hog hunting. As time went on, he turned that passion into the desire to help injured and/or abused animals, and he did just that until the end of his days.

Chris is survived by his Daughter, Christy Britt of Tallahassee; Son, Troy Alward of Jacksonville;
Step Daughter, Kim McCormack of Crawfordville; Grandsons, Robby Britt, Kyle McCormack, and Kevin McCormack all of Crawfordville; Brothers: Jeff Alward, Frank Alward, Wayne Jackson; Sister Candace Alward; Several nieces and nephews and many friends

Chris is predeceased by his Wife and best friend, Kay Alward; granddaughter, Casey Britt, Mother, Agnes Patterson, Father, Herb Alward

A celebration of life will be held at a later date with his family members per his wishes.

Memorial donations may be made in his memory to Florida Wild Mammal Association, Attn: Chris Beatty, 198 Edgar Poole Road, Crawfordville, Florida, 32327.

Amber Miller of Bevis Funeral Home, Harvey-Young Chapel in Crawfordville is assisting the family. (850-926-3333 or www.bevisfh.com)
