“ I have so many memories of you Mrs. Cindy. There were times when we'd just talk, and you seemed to understand. I still can't believe this has happened. But I know that you are no longer in pain and in heaven. I am so sorry that I haven't been there, but thankfully Mikala is there. :) I will never forget you. You will always be my mother in law to me. I love you all. I'm so sorry.

“ I remember you at the house, folding a huge & never ending pile of laundry & cooking aaaaalll the time for Jody, Josh, Fred & Valerie & whomever stopped by. I don't know how you still found time to come pick me up & give me rides when I needed one...but somehow you did. You were there when I got married & always treated me like gold. You were there for me many times as an Aunt, a great friend & I won't ever forget that. We love & miss you dearly. Noelle & Family

Pam, I think that I saw you recently and you asked about Cindy Kay. I told her what you said. That was a very nice gesture and I know she appreciated it.
