“ I remember so many things but it is so hard to talk about those things. He was a good man gone way too early and our thoughts and prayers go out to Julie, Jenni, Lynn and all their family members. I know he enjoyed each and every one of you. One scene that sticks in my mind is when Jenni got married and Clair walked her down the aisle. He was sobbing as he led his daughter down the aisle and gave her away. I started to cry myself because I knew how much he cared but how ready he was to let her go on and lead a good life. Clair and Lynn were some of our best friends for many years and my heart goes out to Lynn. 53 years is a long time and I know those times will be missed. Godspeed Clair and may you find that miraculous fishing hole in the heavens.

I remember all the good times we had. We had a lot of them because Jenni and Laurie had been best friends since Belmont, first grade. I remember basketball games, card games, coaching games, eating out times, etc. These are memories that we will all treasure. Rest well Clair, you will always be in our thoughts.
