

Clara M. Johnson

January 29, 1925 - October 23, 2022

Clara M. Johnson, 97, passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 23, 2022.

Clara was born in Quincy, FL on January 29, 1925, to Walter and Alma Smith Tipper. She was the third child of thirteen. She was preceded in death by her parents, five brothers and five sisters.

Survivors include her three daughters, Anna K. Dean of Naples, FL, Linda J. Bond of Lloyd and Margie E. Johnson of Tallahassee; eight grandchildren; seventeen great grandchildren; ten great-great grandchildren and two sisters, Marie Pierce of Largo, FL and Rebecca Esther of Mississippi.

Clara worked in retail from 1950-1993 and retired from The Vogue in 1990. She came out of retirement and worked at Annette's in 1993. She loved her church and had been a member of Immanuel Baptist Church since 1953 and was very active in the Bea Lambert Sunday School Class, WMU and The Saints.

Her family and friends will remember her for the funny stories she shared of events in her life and for her wonderful cooking skills. When doing work for her, many would tell her they would rather have some of her banana nut bread than be compensated.

The family will receive friends from 10:00AM until 11:00AM on Thursday, October 27, 2022, at Immanuel Baptist Church. The service will follow at 11:00AM at the church with interment at Sylvania Cemetery in Faceville, GA. Memorial gifts in Clara's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society (<https://donate3.cancer.org/>) or Immanuel Baptist Church, 20/20 Vision (<https://www.myibclife.com/giving>).

Kelly Barber of Bevis Funeral Home (850-385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisting the Johnson family with their arrangements.

“ I work with her daughter Anna Dean. Loved hearing stories of her mom and how strong willed she was. Anna has that also. When Anna would go to visit her we all couldn't wait for her to bring back "the famous banana bread".
