

Clay Carter

May 15, 1965 - January 29, 2016

Clayton Bruce "Clay" Carter, 50, of Tallahassee, passed away suddenly Friday, January 29, 2016. A private funeral service has been planned. Clay was a native and lifelong resident of Tallahassee and was a member of the Leon High School class of 1983. He was employed by Carter and Associates in Tallahassee.

Survivors include his two children, Max and Madison Carter, both of Tallahassee; his mother, Pat Brantley of Starke, FL; three sisters, Cheryl Baril of Tallahassee, Christina Greenough of Starke and Millie Kelly of South Carolina; and his brother, Bryan Carter of White, GA.

He is also survived by two step-brothers, Billy and Brian Bond; and a step-sister, Laurie Davis, all of Tallahassee. Clay was preceded in death by his father, Rob Carter.

Rocky Bevis of Bevis Funeral Home (850/385-2193 or www.bevisfh.com) is assisted the Carter family with their arrangements.

Tribute Wall

EA

“ Clay was someone at one time I truly loved...we were together for a few years and I have always carried love in my heart for him ...this saddens me so much ..and I did not even know about his passing until today ..to the family I send my true sympathies he was a man that could so easily steal your heart I wish I could have spoken to him atleast one more time

elizabeth adams - June 26, 2019 at 10:25 PM

KD

“ I still remember family functions, when it would get too crazy in the house. Both Clay and I would retire to the back porch and talk. I also remember when we in public, and he would approach us, he was always friendly. Rest in peace sir.
Kevin Davis

Kevin Davis - February 05, 2016 at 12:20 PM

MM

“ Peace of the Lord be with Clay's family. He is in Gods hands with his loving father Rob. Will always be remembered. With much love to his family. Marie Mills

Marie Mills - February 03, 2016 at 10:09 AM

JS

My sympathy to the family. May Clay rest in peace.

Jane Huckabee Scott - February 08, 2016 at 09:38 AM