Sue, as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was born in Bristol, Florida on August 9, 1937. She was a lifelong member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She attended grade and High school in Liberty County, Florida.

Sue met the Love of her life Ronald L. Williams when she went to a party with Ronald's cousin. It must have been love at first sight because Ronald informed his cousin that she may have come to the party with you but; she is leaving with me. Sue married Ronald on April 22, 1954 in Bainbridge Georgia.

Their union was Blessed with two sons, Robert and Randy. They were married 67 years prior to Ronald's death on September 14, 2021.

Sue and Ronald purchased and ran Indian Springs. A recreational area in Gadsden County Florida from 1966 to 1986. Where area residents could swim, roller skate, play pinball, video games and pool. She loved getting to know the area youth and prided that Indian Springs was a safe place for the youth to be. She enjoyed gardening, canning and loved the water and especially enjoyed swimming. She was an active member in the Relief Society. A women's organization of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints for many, many years.

Sue is Survived by her sons Robert and his wife Dana Williams and Randy and his wife Teresa Williams. Grandchildren: Raymond, Kimberly and her husband Andy Thorup, Ryan and his wife Cami Williams, Robbie, Lindsay and her husband Matt Wood, Zach and Fiance Amanda, step grandchildren Chris and his wife Amy Smith, Matt Smith, Melissa and Chelsae and husband Matthew Medley and 15 great grandchildren, Her Brother Roy Strickland and multiple nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her dear husband Ronald Williams. Her father, Edward Leighton Henderson, mother, Vernie Strickland, and her brother, Larry Strickland. She is loved and will be missed by all. Todd Wahlquist is assisting the Williams family with their arrangements (850-385-2193, www.bevisfh.com).
